R. Numb. 450

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, September 25. 1703.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Sept. 25.

Rome, September 1.

ON Monday last Prince Vahini was seiz'd by a great Number of Sbirris in one of the Streets of this City, and carried Prisoner to the Castle of Saint Angelo, for appearing publickly in this City, after having been forgiven the Disorders he committed during the last Vacancy of the Pontifical Chair on condition he would confine himself to live in Civita Vecchia. They write from Naples, that two French Men of War were come to Brindisi, from whence they would Sail to joyn the Fleet commanded by the Count de Thoulouse. The Jesuites have petition'd the Pope to allow them to choose a new Vicar General of their Order, because the Person who at present has that Office is uncapable to discharge the Functions of it by reason of his great Age. Letters from Fanno advise, that they felt an Earthquake there in the Night of the Festival of the Assumption of the blessed Virgin; and from Naples we learn, that some Shogs have likewise been felt at Aquila.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 25.

From Venice of the 7th instant they write, that by order of the Republick the Fortifications of the Castles of the Lido, la Chiosa, and Malamoco, are strengthening with new Works; and also that several Ships of War are equipping there with all diligence: And that at the Request of the Republick, the Emperor had given Orders that the Privateers of Segna who have lately cruis'd in the Adriatick, should restore all the Prizes they have taken belonging to the Venetians.

Friburg, Sept. 14. We have advice that the Garrison of Brisac march'd out t'other day with the usual Marks of Honour to be conducted to Rhinfeld; that the Duke of Burgundy has put a numerous Garrison into the Place, and that he made his Entry into it on the 11th. We are in apprehension here of being besieg'd or bombarded by that Prince, because 'tis said he has sent the Marshal de Tallard Post to Strasburg, to give Orders for sending a great Quantity of Ammunitions up the Rhine to Brisac.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Sept. 20.

From the Imperial Army commanded by Count Stirum encamp'd at Haunsheim, Sept. 9. Every Horseman and Musqueteer of this Army, which is 20000 Men strong, is order'd to make two Fascines, and all our Ladders are got ready for Service; 'tis said we shall shortly attack the Enemies Camp between Dillingen and Lauingen, whose Retrenchments are defended by 20 Battallions and 18 Squadrons.

Some Advices that came by the last Post assure us, that Prince Lewis of Baden has sent positive Orders to Count Stirum to endeavour to force the French in their Retrenchments, cost what it will.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 25.

Cologne, Sept. 18. Some Advices from the Danube tell us, that General Heister was advanc'd within 4 or 5 Leagues of Munich, that he had exacted heavy Contributions as far as he had penetrated with his Troops into that Country; that he had caus'd a Placard in form of a Manifesto to be publickly affix'd, importing, that he would spare no Bavarians whom he should find in Arms against the Emperor; and that he had under him a Body of 15000 Men of Regular and Militia Forces, with which he was to joyn the Prince of Baden's Army near Munich. But this requires Confirmation.

From the Amsterdam Courant, Sept. 25.

Vienna, Sept. 12. We have Advice that General Heister in the Irruption he made into Bavaria with his Troops and some Peasants of the Country of Tyrol, made a Booty of 2000 Head of Cattle, and 150 of the Elector's own Horses; but on Advice of the Duke of Vendome's moving towards Trent, he is march'd back into Tyrol to help to oppose the Enemy.

Frankfort, Sept. 16. General Herbeville continues before Cham in the Upper Palatinate with 8000 Men; he has acquainted the Prince of Baden that that Place is strongly fortified, but that he does not doubt being Master of it in a few days. The Count de Reventlau is still at Passau, waiting for Reinforcements, with which to make another Irruption into Bavaria.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, Sept. 10.

Paris, Sept. 10. We had a Report here that the Queen of Spain is with Child, but the last Letters from Madrid mention nothing of it. They only tell us, that the Sentence lately given against the Amirante of Castile, by which he is condemn'd to lose his Head, and all his Estate to be confiscated to his Catholick Majesty, being publish'd there, every body appear'd well satisfied with it. Monsieur le Noble, a noted Writer of Lampoons, is committed to Prison for having taken the liberty to defame some private Persons. Monsieur de la Noue a Farmer of ſome of the King's Revenues, being convicted of ſeveral Cheats, is condemn'd to ſtand in the Pillory three Market days, and afterwards to ſerve in the Galleys five Years.

Plymouth, Sept. 21. Yeſterday came in hither the Mermaid, Dragon, Hector and Lime Men of War, and Griffin Fireſhip from Cruiſing to the Weſtward, who convoy'd the Ships bound for New-England and Newfoundland 100 Leagues to the Weſtward of Ireland. This day ſail'd Her Majeſty's Ships the Antelope and Loo to the Weſtward a Cruiſing.
